OVERVIEW OF THE INDIVIDUAL ARTIST PROGRAM

WHAT IT IS:

The Indiana Arts Commission's Individual Artist Projects grant program is designed to support individual artists in all disciplines for specific project-related costs, which will have a positive impact on the artist's career and which will be incurred between July 1, 2004 and June 30, 2005.

HOW IT WORKS:

The Indiana Arts Commission (IAC) will convene a panel of Indiana residents who are knowledgeable in arts and arts management to review and evaluate how well each application addresses the three review criteria – quality of artist's work, impact of the project on the artist's career development, and feasibility of project completion. Panelists will conduct an overall evaluation of the artistic documentation (slides, videos, CD, DVD, photos, literature, etc.) and application form and give a score ranging from zero to 100. A minimum score of 80 points is needed for an application to be considered for funding.

HOW TO APPLY:

This packet contains all the necessary forms and instructions. The IAC staff is available to help you with the application process. You are strongly encouraged to consult with staff prior to application submission if you have any questions or need assistance while developing your application. IAC staff can be reached directly as indicated under "Selecting Artistic Documentation," beginning on Page 7; or at the IAC main line, 317-232-1268; or via general e-mail at arts@state.in.us. If you call the main line or e-mail the general box, please specify your discipline and you will be directed to the appropriate staff member.

STEP 1: Think carefully about the project you are applying for money to complete. Your project must have a significant impact on your career development and you must be able to complete all funded activities between July 1, 2004 and June 30, 2005.

STEP 2: Select the artistic discipline that is appropriate for your project. You may select from: craft, dance, design arts, folk arts, literature, media arts, multi-arts, music, photography, theater or visual arts. You may select only one of the above categories; if you need help deciding which one, contact the IAC staff for assistance.

STEP 3: Review the "Selecting Artistic Documentation" section in these guidelines (pages 7-10) and select the works that you are going to submit with your application form. Each discipline category requires a specific type and number of works to be submitted. The documentation you submit for panel review must have been produced after February 1, 2001. You will want to submit pieces that best convey your creative concepts and technical expertise. The artistic documentation needs to support the selected discipline and should be applicable to the project for which you are requesting funding. If you have questions, contact the IAC staff for assistance.

STEP 4: Complete the application form including attachments and submit your fully completed grant application packet by Monday, February 2, 2004. Your application packet must be in the IAC office by 4:30 p.m. EST on that day. Applications received after that time will not be considered for funding. Your application packet must include 10 (12 for design and visual arts) separate copies of the four-page application form, your current career summary/resume, and an artistic documentation list. In addition to the 10 (12 for design and visual arts) application copies, you must submit the artistic documentation appropriate to your arts discipline.

YOU'RE DONE! Your application will be reviewed during an open panel meeting in the spring of 2004. We will invite you to attend the panel reviewing your application and encourage you to attend. After the review, applications will be ranked by score and the top applications will receive funding. You will be notified in late June/early July 2004 as to whether or not you have been awarded a grant.

ABOUT THE INDIANA ARTS COMMISSION

The Indiana Arts Commission (IAC), a state agency, was established in 1969 to increase the support, awareness, and outreach of the arts in communities across the state. The Commission administers and distributes funds for arts programs and services appropriated by the Indiana General Assembly and the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA).

The agency is governed by a 15-member board of directors appointed to four-year terms by the Governor of the State of Indiana. The Commission holds quarterly business meetings throughout the state; these meetings are open to the general public for observation. A professional staff and over 100 Hoosier volunteers from all walks of life support the Commission's programs and services.

Long-term Goals

The Indiana Arts Commission has three major goals:

1. To fulfill the leadership potential of state government in developing Indiana's arts economy through statewide programs and services;
2. To advance significantly the continuing regional development of the arts and culture in Indiana through the Regional Partner Initiative; and
3. To create a new public-private partnership structure to develop the arts and significantly increase public and private resources to the arts.

Grantmaking Philosophy

The Indiana Arts Commission recognizes the importance of public financial support to sustain a wide variety of artistic disciplines and expressions within Indiana. Grants will serve as an incentive for developing and strengthening the capacity of communities to plan and implement high quality arts activities. All funding decisions will be made in open processes that meaningfully involve residents in decisions about how state and federal tax dollars will be used to support the arts in each region and statewide.

Conflict of Interest Policy

Board members, staff, and volunteers of the Indiana Arts Commission must declare conflicts of interest which may preclude their impartial participation in decisions concerning state or regional policies, services, or the allocation of statewide or regional arts funding. These individuals cannot participate in related discussions or decisions when a conflict of interest is declared. (For more information, contact the IAC.)

INDIANA REGIONAL PARTNERSHIP INITIATIVE

In 1997, the Indiana Arts Commission and 12 community-based organizations jointly established the Indiana Regional Partnership Initiative, a collaborative project to enhance support for arts and cultural activities statewide, especially in underserved areas. # ABOUT THE GRANT PROGRAM FOR INDIVIDUAL ARTIST PROJECTS

Program description

The Individual Artist Projects grant program is designed to support individual artists in all disciplines for specific project-related costs, which will have a positive impact on the artist's career. Eligible projects are purposely left flexible to respond to artists' ideas, dreams, and needs. Applicants must plan a project, or phase of a project, which can be realized within the requested budget and completed within the proposed timeline.

Grant amount

Applicants may request a maximum of $1,000. No match is required. The number of grants awarded is dependent on the amount of funds available. In FY2004, 80 projects were funded out of 172 applications received by the IAC. Only applicants with scores of 80 or higher received a grant.

Application deadline and grant period

February 2, 2004 is the deadline for submitting FY2005 grant applications. Applications CANNOT be submitted by email or by fax. The proposed project MUST begin on or after July 1, 2004 and be completed no later than June 30, 2005. There are no exceptions.

Who can apply?

Individual artists may apply for ONE grant if they meet the following criteria:

- Are at least 18 years of age;
- have lived in Indiana for one year immediately preceding the date of application and;
- plan to remain a resident of Indiana during the grant period.

Who is not eligible for this program?

The IAC cannot provide funding for individual artists who:

- Currently are enrolled in any degree-granting program;
- received an Individual Artist Project grant from the IAC in FY2004 (July 1, 2003 through June 30, 2004); or
- are part of a collaboration for which another artist is applying for IAC support in the same fiscal year.

What can you apply to do?

Projects may include, but are not limited to:

- Supplies, rental/purchase of equipment, time necessary for the development, completion, or presentation of a work;
- documentation of work;
- travel essential for artistic research or to present or complete work; or
- advanced workshops that further career development.

APPLICATION REVIEW PROCESS

Advisory panel review

The Indiana Arts Commission has established an advisory panel process to assist in its evaluation of grant applications. Panels appointed by the Arts Commission will be composed of Indiana residents who are experienced artists or knowledgeable in the arts and/or arts management. The IAC strives to balance advisory panel composition with consideration to race, gender, regional representation, special needs, and arts discipline.

Advisory panels will be convened in the spring of 2004. Panel meetings are open to the public for observation and may be recorded. Applicants will be invited and are encouraged to attend. Applicants cannot “lobby” panelists on behalf of their applications before, during, or after the panel meeting. Applicants who do not attend the panel session and want to know how their grant was reviewed must call the IAC staff and make an appointment to review advisory panelists’ written and taped comments in the IAC office. Due to the volume of applications received, these comments will not be sent to applicants.

How proposals are evaluated

Panelists review all applications and evaluate how well each one fulfills the three review criteria (quality of artist’s work, impact of the project on the artist’s career development, and feasibility of project completion). A minimum score of 80 points is needed for an application to be considered for funding.

QUALITY OF ARTIST’S WORK (up to 25 points)

- Demonstrated artistic ability (15 points)
- Professional activity as evidenced by support materials and career summary (5 points)
- Artistic documentation for designated discipline is easy to understand and interpret (5 points)

IMPACT OF THE PROPOSAL ON THE ARTIST’S CAREER DEVELOPMENT (up to 40 points)

- Impact of project on artist’s career development is clearly defined (20 points)
- Public benefit of the artist’s project is clearly defined and is appropriate (10 points)
- Evidence of a successful history based on artist’s previous work (10 points)

FEASIBILITY OF PROJECT COMPLETION (up to 35 points)

- Goals and objectives of proposed activities are clearly explained (why proposal merits funding) (10 points)
- Implementation steps are clearly explained and sufficient details are provided in the project timeline. (10 points)
- Proposal completion date appears to be reasonable (5 points)
- Estimated expenses and budget appear to be reasonable (5 points)
- Overall quality of submitted application and support materials (5 points)

Commission action

Following each panel meeting, IAC staff may use a Commission-approved normalization formula that will eliminate, as much as possible, any scoring discrepancies between the different advisory panels. Applications will be ranked by score and the top applications will receive funding.

The Indiana Arts Commission will review and ratify all FY2005 funding recommendations at its June 2004 business meeting. Commission meetings are open to the public for observation and may be recorded.

Reconsideration policy and appeal process

The reconsideration process is designed to review the method and fairness of the IAC decision concerning a grant application. This process is not intended to impose a different panel's choices/judgment over the original panel's decision. Dissatisfaction with the denial of a grant or the amount of an award is not sufficient reason for an appeal.

Applicants may request reconsideration of a funding decision if the applicant can demonstrate:

1. The panel or review team used criteria other than the criteria published in the grant guidelines;
2. there was influence by an IAC staff person or IAC volunteer panelist having a conflict of interest; and/or
3. required information submitted by the applicant was withheld from consideration.

Applicants must send a formal letter to the IAC executive director stating the reasons for reconsideration based on one or more of the three points above, and evidence of the grounds for the appeal. The letter must be received in the IAC office within 30 days of notification of the IAC grant award in question. An appeals committee, appointed by the IAC Chair, will review all requests for appeal and make recommendations to the full Commission at its next business meeting. All decisions of the Commission are final and may not be appealed further.

HOW TO COMPLETE AND SUBMIT AN APPLICATION

Getting started

Please read the entire guidelines, instructions, and application packet before you begin preparing your application. If you are unsure about the discipline category appropriate for your project, or have other questions, please contact the IAC for assistance either by phone at 317-232-1268 or by e-mail at arts@iac.state.in.us.

Completing the form on your computer

You may download either the Adobe Acrobat or Microsoft Word for Windows version of the guidelines and application form from the IAC website at www.in.gov/arts. ## A guide to application preparation

Application preparation to obtain a grant does not require specialized training or expertise. IAC staff is only a phone call away if you have questions about information contained in this packet. The staff is eager to help you present your proposal in the best possible light for panel review.

Successful applications contain clear, concisely written descriptions of your arts project and demonstrate how the proposal meets all guidelines and evaluation criteria.

- Read the guidelines thoroughly before you begin to write the application. Follow the application instructions carefully. Contact the IAC for clarification or with questions.
- Write the application with the assumption that its reader does not know about you or the project. Avoid jargon or abbreviations that are not familiar to the general public. The narrative should address all questions, and should explain specifically why your project merits funding.
- Have someone not closely associated with the project read a draft of the application to see if it communicates what is intended.
- Construct your budget based upon your artistic goals. Estimate your expenditures and revenues realistically.
- Apply by the deadline; late applications will not be given funding consideration.
- In addition to the artistic documentation, you will need to submit the materials on page 11.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER A GRANT IS AWARDED?

Notification of your grant award

All applicants will be notified in writing of grant decisions after the Commission meets and approves the grants (June 2004). Grantees will receive packets containing an award letter, a grant agreement, an IRS W-9 form, and other pertinent materials that must be completed, signed and returned to the IAC before the grantee's first payment can be processed.

Acknowledgment and credit of public funding

All grantees MUST credit the Indiana Arts Commission and the National Endowment for the Arts for their support in ALL publicity and printed materials related to the funded project. Logos and credit lines must be included in a prominent location and type size. The IAC will provide you with logo sheets. The credit line for activities receiving funding should read: "Provided with support from the Indiana Arts Commission, a state agency, and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency."

Grant Agreement

The grant agreement is your official contract with the Indiana Arts Commission. Read this document carefully as you will be responsible for meeting all the terms and conditions it contains. You must sign and return your grant agreement and W-9 form to the IAC immediately. Your signed grant agreement will be reviewed by three other state agencies – the Department of Administration, the Budget Agency, and the Attorney General's office. (This is standard procedure). When all state official signatures have been affixed to the document, a copy of the fully executed agreement will be sent to you. The original is kept on file at the Indiana Arts Commission. The IAC will not recognize any contractual obligation to an individual without a fully executed copy of the grant agreement on file.

IRS W-9 form

All grantees must fill out this form to provide the State of Indiana with your social security number. The completed form must be completed and signed by the grantee and returned to the Indiana Arts Commission.

First grant payment

The first payment of your grant will be for 75 percent of the total award. The payment will be mailed to you after your grant agreement has been approved by all three State agencies. ## Changes to the project

During the period of your grant, you must notify the IAC in writing of any major changes that may affect the funded project. These include changes in budget, personnel, dates, scope of activities, etc. IAC staff will review your changes before giving written approval. All grantees must submit a completed final grant report one month following the grant's ending date, or by August 1, 2005, whichever comes first. The deadline for submitting the final report will be identified in your grant agreement. The final grant report form will be mailed to you in your grant notification packet. You should read through the report before you begin so you will know the type of information you will be asked to supply at the end of your project. You will not automatically be mailed another form, so place this somewhere where you will have access to it when your project has ended and it is time to submit the final report.

SAMPLE PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Applicant Name: Jane T. Doe

- Project Description. Write a brief statement describing your intended proposal. Do NOT continue on additional pages. Answer all six questions (A-F). Be as concise, clear, and brief as possible in your responses. Panelists read many applications. Long rambling narratives are difficult to understand and remember. Panelists are more likely to retain information that summarizes key elements, is clearly presented, and to the point.

A. Describe your project:

The intent of my project is to develop a series of 10 ceramic forms as canvases for illustrating images and stories from my personal visual file. If funded, I will use the Indiana Arts Commission grant to purchase clay, overglazes, and glazes to create these images on 25" ceramic platters and drawings done with Majolica glaze technique. In the past four years, I have been using the circle/platter as my canvas to tell a personal story. I have always been more comfortable building with clay on clay surfaces, generally developing the surface. Lately, I have had a great interest in trying a "painter's direction" on my clay surfaces. The Majolica technique lends itself to that type of watercolor painting surface, and I find the prospect of moving in this direction a great challenge for me.

B. How do you plan to accomplish the described project and why does it merit funding?

I plan to begin by doing a series of preliminary sketches that will identify the images for the subject matter. These images (which are patterns, floral, botanical and human forms) will be the vehicles used for evoking feelings of elegance, sensuality, and the joy and celebration of life. The technique will involve glazing the large platters with an opaque tin glaze colors. The pieces will be fired to cone 04 multiple times depending on the need, in order to get a rich textural surface. The project merits funding because my approach to this technique will be different than matte individual work in clay. As an artist/educator, I have noticed clay artists are often challenged when working in a "painter's mode" with glazes. It seems the difficulty lies with the ability to handle brushwork in a manner befitting the forms and surfaces of clay. My intent is to approach the project as a painter would approach a canvas and with the tools and materials in hand. I will focus on the grand concept and feelings of expression, making something more meaningful than just a "pretty" plate.

C. How will this project make a difference in your career development? This project will influence my career development because it will provide an interesting and dynamic change in direction from my previous work. It is important to me that I continue exploring and share these results with my students and colleagues. I believe artists should always explore new techniques and build on the next level of their craft. It is also the willingness to take on these types of challenges that may also build an artist's credibility within the field.

Applicant Name: Jane T. Doe

D. Describe the public benefits of this project; this may include a variety of activities that would include contact with the public. What county(ies) will benefit from the project?

This project will be a culminating effort for my retrospective exhibition "Metamorphosis," in July -December 2004 at the Creative Crafts Center in Muncie, Indiana. I will work with Happy Printing Company in Indianapolis, which has provided me the in-kind service of their graphic artist, to produce brochures about the upcoming exhibit. The public will be able to see through the exhibition and the brochure the many stages an artist goes through as a result of being challenged, as well as the growth and changes that occur over the years with the commitment to one's craft.

E. What are the anticipated outcomes including your overall goals and objectives? How will you evaluate the success of this project?

I believe that this project will be highly successful, and this new body of work will be a challenging change in my personal artistic direction. This project is not only exciting on a personal level, but also as a professional educator. My overall goal is to share this new level of expertise with all my students and other artists who might consider this form as another option for their creative reservoir. My objective is to make sure that "Metamorphosis addresses the specific aspects of this new form and at least encourages those who attend the exhibition to start thinking of it as viable alternative.

I will evaluate the success of "Metamorphosis" by the number of people who attend the exhibit, the number of new commissions I receive from organizations and individuals as a result of viewing my work. I expect to sell more work through the brochure and anticipate expanding the number of galleries who represent me.

F. Project Timeline (your timeline must include detailed information, in addition to a starting and ending date):

Starting Date: July 1, 2004

Ending Date: June 30, 2005

Detailed timeline: This timeline provides ample time to do the series of 15 paintings on clay (ceramic platters) in preparation for my one-person exhibit in 2005.

July 1-January 1 - Work on ceramic platters

January 1-March 1 - Prepare educational/informational material that accompanies exhibition

March 1-May 1 - Work with Happy Printing's graphic artist to design and lay out brochure

May 1 -June 1 - Meet with curator and arrange pieces for exhibition

June 1-June 30 - Hang pieces and hold information session prior to opening

July 1 - Exhibition opening
